Letter from San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18 h, 1875.

FRIEND DEMOCRAT:—By our mutual mail friend, Uncle Samuel, you will receive this elaborate epistle—a tender of my regard for your general welfare.

I am proud to see the interest manifested throughout this section of the State in Yolo matters. Her central position and the energy of her citizens have mostly contributed to this result. I know of several prominent grain people who are very apt to estimate the State yield of grain on the general tone of Yolo's crops. And why should not this be true? We are hearing small sized rumbles down here, already, from your political quakes. Yolo has her little mission to perform in the coming campaign. The fearful rottenness pervading every department of our National government is crying to heaven for reform and redress. In the coming State contest we shall see the infuriating land telling of a new National ille, or continued degradation, to result—God alone can tell.

As you are aware, San Francisco politics are somewhat mixed. The Democracy have been heartily distracted over the right, or manner of representation. A few years ago the Young Men's Democratic Central Club came into being, and a few leading spirits exercised a marked influence on the elections. This year gubernatorial candidates sought to use this element for their own purposes. Despairing of success in this attempt, and seeing the coveted prize of power slip away into other grasps, a number of sore-heads raised the cry of corruption and irresponsibility, and succeeded in getting the State Committee into the quarrel. A compromise has, however, been effected, a primary held, the strength and determination of the young element ascertained, and all is well.

It is much to be lamented that our municipal politics get so interwoven with state matters (through our preponderance in State conventions). However powerful for good or evil our delegation may be in State conventions, the State Central Committee must remember the principles of Democracy and rely on the integrity of the masses. It is amusing to note the latherly (?) solicitude of the Chronicle in the Democratic dissensions. What care should be exercised lest evil counsels prevail! What indignation, that old fogy greybeards should come in to disturb the plans of the "boys"! What an outcry over the base surrender, which old and young came together in a compromising spirit, instead of pitching each other into the last ditch! The Chronicle is in a sad plight. Its early Democratic leading is still remembered by the Republicans, who are now claiming that it is preparing for a flop (in view of its several items illustrative of the rank corruption in administrative circles). Intense disgust is manifested by Republicans and Democrats alike over the late assertion of this "live paper," that the Custom House Republicans are cutting loose from the Sargent influence, and going on their own hook. Every school-boy in this city knows that Sargent owns the whole plantation, body and soul. The game is for him to put a ticket secretly made up by Sargent and Gorham, in the political interest of the latter. No man of common sense attempts to deny this honestly. A meeting is called of Republicans. It is announced that a few have "got their backs up" about the management of the party, and are about to kick up a row. Immediately word is passed around, and just as the all important vote is to be taken up toddles some twenty patriots whose face I have never before seen, or own or vindicate accounts. "Custom House crowd," is whispered along the hall, and Reformists hang up their violins and meander to their virtuous couches, strangely confounding mill obstructions and Custom House officials.

A few words about the Independents: About six months ago they crowed on the highest fence, undoubtedly; to-day they're no-where. The much talked about dinner to Anthony et al. brought this out. From what I can gather from a certain grave dignity who doesn't like to see his name "in print," I am confident of the reliability of my information. The intention of the gathering was not to make Anthony a candidate as a sine qua non, though he was mentioned. The purpose was to discuss an organization, and to take preliminary measures for the coming contest. It was proposed to start a campaign journal paper in this city, and to do such other business, etc., etc. Anthony's experience and newspaper ability was counted on in the organ affair, but who was to be the coming man. Several were found capable of being persuaded, but were they available? Booth of course was out of the field (though were he in, his senatorial fizzle would put him down too many pegs for a venture). Postly John is not swift enough for the race; Pacheco with not strong; Miller doesn't care to bite; and Estee is too black for the Dems, and a too changeable wight for the Reubs; Freeman is left—but you see he's not available—too thin. In view of this outlook, no wonder it took more wine than at first estimated to each individual

"To raise their drooping spirits up."

As a decided failure, I think it was the grandest success of the season.

I have been studying civil Engineering and draughting lately, and though a little out of my line I have struck off a spirited sketch of the Independent Party going on a general excursion to visit Brigham Young the day after the coming election, viz:

Here you see the towering form of Senator Booth, with John, M. M. S. T., citizens on foot, while the Saints airing form of "our Frank" brings us the rear. Let them lie in piece. I have used so much space on our political affairs that I dare not venture further, though with "lots" to say, which shall therefore be continued in annexed issue. WM. DUD.

A QUEER CRAFT.—Captain R. S. Floyd, formerly master of the Ajax and other steamers of the Halladay & Brenham line, is getting ready for the construction of a peculiarly shaped steamer. Her length over all will be 77 feet; length of keel, 71 feet; breadth of beam, 9 feet; depth of hold, 6 feet. She is the narrowest craft for her length ever constructed on this coast, and is to be used for pleasure trips and the conveyance of passengers to different points on Clear Lake. There being no suitable timber in that region, the keel and frame timbers will be got out in this city, shipped to Calistoga, and thence haul'd by teams over the mountains. The conveying of her keel, a stick of Oregon pine 72 feet long, over the winding roads through the mountains beyond Calistoga, will be of itself something of a feat. Captain Floyd has already a steamer on the Lake, but is too small and too slow for the purpose intended, and her engines will be used to propel the new boat. The steamer is expected to be very swift, as her lines are very fine, being laid down by Mr. Campbell, who assisted in draftingthe Flying Cloud and other flyers in the California trade.—S. F. Bulletin.

GRASSHOPPERS IN MISSOURI.—The crop of grasshoppers this year promises to be as abundant in Missouri as it was in Kansas and Nebraska in 1874. A gentleman in this city received a box of specimens from Weston, in that state, on Tuesday. There seemed to be millions in it—an innumerable mass of sprightly little fellows from an eighth to a quarter of an inch long. They had been scooped up by the handful, and the gentleman who gathered them says there are acres of them. The ground is alive with the pests, and as soon as they have grown a little more they will take wing and then comes the havoc. It is not unlikely that they will appear as far east as Southern Illinois the present season. It was thought the late cold weather would be fatal to these grasshoppers, but they seem to be proof to any ordinary temperature, and can stand a sharp frost a good deal better than the fruit. What with the grasshoppers to devour every green thing, the buffalo gnat to wage to death the live stock, and an unfavorable spring, the farmers of the West have a dismal prospect before them for 1875.—Cincinnati Commercial.

Letter from Santa Rosa.

SANTA ROSA, May 24 h, 1875

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—I take the liberty of sending you a few items from here. I find this place quite a city. The streets and houses are all numbered, and there is the appearance of general wealth and thrift among the people.

Through the kindness of some of the leading citizens I have been shown the various works that have been erected here. Among the foremost is the Water Works, which have been erected at an outlay of about fifty thousand dollars. The reservoir is a distance of three miles from town. The main pipe is 11 inches in internal diameter at reservoir, and enters the town with a 9 inch main. The supply is abundant and of fine quality; it is taken from Santa Rosa Creek. The present income is about $400 per month. The water rates are $1 50 per month. Gas about the same as in your own city.

There are several large lumber yards all supplied from the mills in the vicinity, Sonoma any amount of capital to send abroad; and when you purchase samples you get full count. Talbot & Co also has a steam laundry, conducted by white men; a foundary and machine shop, three extensive brick yards, at one of which are made fine pressed brick. The Masonic Fraternity are commencing to build a fine Temple 60 by 90 feet, at a cost of about eighteen thousand dollars.

There is an extensive tile factory in the suburbs of the city, where they manufacture several kinds of tiles, which partially accounts for the beautiful shrubbery, vegetables and fruit in the hand-some grounds in and around the city. Strawberries in all their beauty and richness are grown to perfection by undertaking the ground when 2 inch tile cut 16 inches long; and at the joints they leak, thus supplying each a rawberry plant with moisture at the roots. I was surprised when I found the price of this tile was only 25 cents per rod, for I have the 14 inch ten cents. Why don't your folks manufacture and use them? And also use in main underdraining the wet lands in various parts of your county? They would certainly receive profit from the same.

Most of the fruit in this vicinity is destroyed by the recent frosts. Crops of all kinds promising a good yield, late sowing can excepted.

From the gentlemanly Superintendent of Public Schools I learn that the place contained 691 pupils at their last report, and now has probably from 700 to 800. The Christian College has 142 pupils enrolled; the Pacific Methodist, some 250. They all seem quite prosperous, and are closing to the satisfaction of their patrons.

On taking a ride towards the mills, I was surprised to meet about 70 teams coming into town loaded with lumber. I am yours,

UNCLE TOBY.

Going over to the Enemy.

Several Democratic journals allude exultingly to the circumstance that most of the Republicans who go South come back pretty good Democrats. Messrs. Foster, Pueblo and Wheeler, the Louisiana Sub-Committee, are conspicuous examples of the success of this process of manufacturing Democratic members of Congress. They were good enough Republicans when they started on their mission to warrant their appointment by Speaker Blaine; but they came back with a report that brought nearly every Republican member to his feet. Then Mr. Hoar went to New Orleans to discover how and by what means the Sub Committee had been duped, and in good time returned with a report differing only in minor points from theirs. The last Southern convert is Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania. This gentleman is noted for having established a certain relation between pig-iron and pig-headedness, and also for his full belief in every rumor that came from the South in regard to the atrocities committed by whites on unoffending colored men. He believed until after the Louisiana Sub Committee nor Mr. Hoar, who had reluctantly corroborated their statements, and showed his disbelief by voting for the Enforcement bill. When Congress adjourned, Mr. Kelly went South on his own account. In spite of pig-iron and pig-head, he, too, was specially converted. He has gone even beyond Foster, Pierce and Wheeler, in his expressions of sympathy with the South. He asserts that there is no more need of military rule in the South than in Pennsylvania—an assertion not so very sweeping in the light of recent events in the Keystone State. No suspicion of dishonesty can attach to the change in opinion of such men as Hoar, Kelley, and their associates. They have nothing to gain by going over to the enemy, nor are they precisely the kind of men who would go over to the enemy for gain. We are inclined, therefore, to accept their conversion as another and much needed illustration of the power of truth. The act of his political life for which Kelley now expresses the greatest remorse is his vote for the Enforcement bill.—S. F. Call

A TOWN BURNED.—All that is now left of this thriving town is about thirty houses; everything else in the place being a mass of smouldering wood and ashes, and it is utterly impossible to recognize any part of the place. The fire commenced in the Presbyterian Church, with a strong gale blowing from the hill directly towards the center of the town at the time. In less than three hours time the devastation was complete. People were obliged to fly for life, and leave everything behind them. Soon after the commencement of the fire the tunnpikes and roads in every direction were a mass of flame, and there seemed no way of escape until Mr. Daniel Wood, of the Pennsylvania railroad, brought a train of cars with which it was found necessary to pack the men, women and children as close as possible, and even then it was necessary to make four trips. It is estimated 11,000 people were saved in this manner. The night was terrible. A gentleman who was obliged to take this means of escape, says it was past description. The flames leaped up from the trees a hundred feet high, and the crackling of the flames was something awful. Burning branches were falling on the old ones, and the men were kept busy putting out the fires on the women and their own clothing. Much credit is due Mr. Wood for his prompt action in the matter. The Catholic and Methodist churches were burned. From 1,500 to 2,000 people are now entirely homeless, and the destruction is complete, the people saving nothing to eat, and no clothing except what they had on their backs when they escaped.

POTATOES WITHOUT IRRIGATION.—To raise the best quality of potatoes on any of this foothill land without irrigation, it is only necessary to plow and pulverize the soil well, furrow it out with a plow, drop in potatoes at proper distances into the furrows and then cover them from six to eight inches deep with dry straw, simply. The straw prevents absorption sufficiently to keep the soil underneath quite moist all summer, and it will be found that potatoes thus planted will germinate and grow thriftily. When the potatoes are ready to dig all that is necessary is to remove the straw and pick them up. They will be found to be a clean as though washed for the pot. We have known the finest quality to be raised in this way right on the dry red palms in the valley and it is reasonable that they will do even better here in the hills. It is necessary that there be some moisture in the soil when planted. If our farmers will try this plan, they will be pleasantly surprised at the result.—Placer Herald.

"PIZENED."—An old fellow prowling through the alley by the Moffat building yesterday, came upon a lot of half decayed oranges which had been just thrown out. He was sorting them over when a boy came along, and taking in the situation in an instant, he shouted: "Them's put there to pizen hogs, mister, and if you bite into one o' 'em you're a dead man." The old fellow moved off, and the boy sat down and stuffed himself until he was orange colored clear around behind his ears.—Detroit Free Press.

SEEDLESS.—O'Connor & Co., of San Francisco, have received from Australia a shipment of novel orange trees. This is a seedless Brazilian variety, one of the best in cultivation, and is new in this State. It has recently been introduced into Florida, and is very popular among orange growers there, on account of the large size and flavor of its fruit.

The Great Circus and Menagerie.

The world-renowned circus and menagerie of wild animals of Montgomery Queen, will exhibit in Woodland, Saturday, May 29, afternoon and evening. We copy the following from the San Francisco Daily Evening Post: (The remarks apply to Woodland just as well.)

If a company of an actor seeks the favorable recognition of the community on the basis of proven excellence, there is at once a cheerful response, guaranteeing extended popularity. And this has been the first season of Montgomery Queen's Circus and Menagerie in this city, the probabilities are that the public would have patiently waited for the critics of the press to pronounce upon the merits of the affair before attending any performance. But there was no occasion for this, Mr. Queen having previously demonstrated the superiority of his entertainments to others of a similar character, and given abundant gratification to great crowds of adults and juveniles. On the opening night there was one of the densest masses of human beings in the mammoth pavilion that ever collected this side of the Rocky Mountains to see any kind of entertainment, and the brilliant auspices of that occasion have attended every subsequent performance. Never before have so many arenic stars appeared together in this city. Who has seen the magnificent riding of Mr. Charles Fish and not been astonished at his confidence and daring? The ease with which he takes backward somersaults on a flying bareback steed is the wonder of all beholders. Apparently the greater the difficulty and danger of any equestrian feat the more pleasure he takes in performing it. He looks on it in his native element when somersaulting high in the air and gracefully alighting on a bareback racer. Like Caesar he is grand on horseback whatever he may be on foot, and startles and pleases at the same time. The charming, sprightly, darling little Mollie Brown, who

Around the magic circle flies,
With beaming face and glowing eyes, is the pet of the audience. It is rightly said of her: "She has no superior—knows no equal." For ease, grace and unaffected delicacy, her riding is peculiarly distinguished, and she may aptly be called the equestrian fairy of the arenic world. Just witness her bareback somersault! There is ease, eloquence, style and daring for you! Then there are Madam Louise Brown, Mistress of the Manege, Madame Adelaide Maceo, youthful and brilliant, the artiste of the skipping rope divertissement, Madame Helen Rowell, the great sensational equestrienne, and a number of other stars, ladies and gentlemen, who are unrivaled in their respective departments. And now Mr. James Robinson, the well known, daring and accomplished rider, has been engaged to appear in rivalry with Mr. Charles Fish. Two such splendid riders are not probably to be seen together in any other circus in the world, but then Monty Query Queen has no equal in an enterprise of this kind. To speak here of the attractions of his menagerie is unnecessary, for the fame of the animals is universal, and the wonder of all who behold them too great for utterance.

John C. Breckenridge.

This once brilliant statesman, politician and soldier, whose name and history have a national reputation, died at his residence in peace and quiet retirement, at Lexington, Ky., on the 17th inst. For a number of years his health has been rapidly impaired, and his death has been expected for many months.

Mr. Breckenridge was born near Lexington, in 1821. He was a handsome man, of exceptional personal appearance, and in his early life and middle age was the pride of the South. He was educated in Danville, and studied law at the Transylvania Institute, after which he served as Mayor in the Mexican war. At the early age of thirty he became a member of Congress, and was re-elected two years later. During his discussions on the Kansas-Nebraska Bill he had a serious trouble with F. B. Cutting, of New York, which came near ending in a duel. In 1856 he was elected Vice President on the Democratic ticket with Buchanan. He was the Democratic opponent to Douglas for the Presidency in 1860, and gained the support of the most of the Southern States. After his defeat in the Presidential campaign, his native State elected him to the United States Senate, from which he was expelled for his earnest support of the Confederacy. His next career was as General of the Southern army. At the close of the war he went to Cuba and thence to Europe, where he remained a number of years. This ended his public life, and during the remainder of his days he lived in retirement at his old home amid his boyhood friends and the ones who esteemed him most. Mr. Breckenridge was socially as in other respects a gentleman. He married Miss Birch, of Georgetown, where he spent a portion of his life successfully studying law. Ever true to the South, he held dear that clime, loved its people, and was a brilliant son of whom that sunny land may well be proud.

JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRATS.—Hon. Cassius M. Clay was present at the Democratic State Convention of Kentucky, and being invited to address the Convention did so briefly, as follows:

Mr Chairman and Gentlemen: I feel sensibly that the compliment you have paid me by this call to address a few words to this distinguished and most important gathering of the Democratic party [applause]; but I feel still more sensibly impressed by the cordiality with which you receive me among you, so that I may justly say that, although I am not easily terrified, but being amongst the unterrified, I am to say a little terrified. [Laughter and applause.] Gentlemen, I know there is too much to be done here to-day to listen to speeches at this time. I thank you for what I know you intend as a compliment. Allow me to say that I have always professed to be a Democrat. I am an old-fashioned Jefferson Democrat. We stand to-day upon the same platform. You are there and I am there, and we are together. I do not care who criticises, but I believe on the to-day the true leaders of the Republican and Democratic principles of 1776. The Democratic party to-day stands upon those principles, and it is the true defender of the constitutional liberties of this country. Therefore, if I am not untrue to myself, I am nothing else but a Democrat, and am not ashamed to be enlisted under such names as Jefferson, Madison and Jackson. [Applause.]

ABOUT A NEWSPAPER.—The Louisville Courier-Journal has the following sensible remarks regarding the management of a newspaper:

Some people estimate the ability of a newspaper and the talent of its editor by the quantity of its original matter. It is comparatively an easy task for a frothy writer to pour out daily a column of words—upon any and all subjects. His ideas may flow in one weak, washy, everlasting flood, and the command of his language may enable him to string them together like bunches of onions, and yet his paper may be a meager and poor concern. Indeed the mere writing part of editing a paper is but a small portion of the work. The care, the time employed in selecting, is far more important, the tact of a good editor is better shown by its selections than anything else; and that, we know, is half the battle. But, as we have said, an editor ought to be estimated by the general conduct of his paper—its tone, its uniform consistent course, its aims, manliness, its dignity and propriety. To preserve these as they should be preserved is enough to occupy the time and attention of any man. If to these be added the general supervision of the newspaper establishment, which most editors have to encounter, the wonder is how they find time to write at all.

IRON MANUFACTURE.—A company has been organized for the purpose of working a large iron mine near Chico, and as an earnest of their good faith they have purchased Morse's fourteen mill, with the water privilege. The company intend to construct a flume for the purpose of floating the ore down to Chico, and from thence they expect to bring it down over the Colusa Narrow Gauge Railroad. The practicability of floating the ore down in V-shaped boxes has been thoroughly tested. When this great interest is thoroughly developed, however, the Narrow Gauge will be extended to the mines, and from that over to Susanville, which will open up to Chico an immense trade, not only with Northern California, but with portions of Nevada, Washington Territory and Idaho.—Colusa Sun.

WOODLAND, CAL:

Friday, May 28th, 1875.

S. F. PRIMARY.—The Republican primary election in San Francisco on Tuesday last resulted in the election of the Gorham-Shannon delegates to the State Convention. The people know what to expect from them.

LUTTRELL.—Hon. J. K. Luttrell had an enthusiastic reception at Shasta on Monday last. Cheer after cheer went up for his return to Congress. There is a strong probability of his renomination, and if that is secured he is almost certain of a re-election.

EMBARKED AGAIN.—Dennis E. McCarthy, late of the S. F. Chronicle's editorial staff, has recently purchased the Virginia (Nev.) Evening Chronicle and will manage it as sole proprietor. Mr. McCarthy was one of the original proprietors of the Virginia Enterprise.

ESCAPED.—Geiger, who was convicted last Autumn for the murder of Mrs. Strong in Mendocino county, escaped from the Santa Rosa Jail together with a prisoner named Jones, on the morning of the 25th, and left for parts unknown. They have not since been heard of.

ORANGES AND LEMONS.—This year the southern counties of California sent to San Francisco 3,380,000 oranges, 630,000 lemons and 80,000 limes. The consumption of California is about 10,000,000 oranges a year, and 5,000,000 are brought from Mexico and the Pacific Isles.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.—In the Teachers' Institute at Napa, the other day, according to a local paper, a motion that "it is the sense of this Institute that all schools may be governed without the influence of capital punishment," was voted down by an overwhelming majority.

CAMPAIGN PAPER.—Announcement is made that the "Publishing Company of San Francisco" will print and circulate ten thousand copies of a Democratic newspaper during the campaign. Doubtless this "Publishing Company" is made up of those who have their little axes to grind.

EARLY GRAIN SHIPMENTS.—There has been already shipped from Dixon, two hundred sacks of new barley, raised by W. McCann, and shipped by Eppinger & Co. to H. G. Smith & Co. of Sacramento. Last year the first shipment of both wheat and barley were made from that place.

NOT EXACTLY.—The Bee says "Winters is the name of a new town in Yolo county on the south side of Putah creek, just where that stream emerges from the mountains," etc. Winters is located in Yolo county, on the north bank of Putah Creek. The stream is the boundary line between the two counties. The town is also located some three miles east of the mountains, on the plains.

DISGUSTED.—The Contra Costa Gazette, heretofore one of the most "truly loyal" of all the Republican papers on this coast, expresses unfeigned disgust at the address of the Republican State Central Committee. What wonder? That document is a disgrace to the civilization of the age, breathing a spirit of hatred and revenge more befitting the verriest savages on the face of the earth than the chosen committee of a great party claiming to possess within its ranks all the virtue, intelligence and patriotism in the land. We might quote from the address, but we design shortly to copy it entire as a campaign document. It is enough to sink the party putting it forth.

RAILROAD DEVELOPMENTS.—According to the Vallejo Chronicle, the Central Pacific people are preparing to push the Woodland and Colusa Railroad through to completion. Our informant tells us that they are buying horses and getting ready to go to work immediately. We understand that Charles Crocker, who is a vigorous business man, will superintend the construction of the road. A gentleman just down from Colusa tells us that the farmers there are excited about it. Increased terminal facilities will be more than ever needed at South Vallejo now, since we shall have not only all the Colusa wheat, but also the Berryessa wheat, which will come over the Winters road. It has heretofore gone by Vallejo in vessels, via Napa.

ST. NICHOLAS FOR JUNE opens with one of the most charming frontispieces that have yet appeared in the magazine, illustrating a fanciful poem by Rachel Pomeroy, about a little giant-girl. Stories of adventure have by this time come to be a fixed fact with the boys who read St. Nicholas, and they will fully appreciate the interesting account of the manner in which a "First Trout" was caught, the article telling them just "How to camp out at the Beach," and a certain story in the crises of "The Young Surveyor." As for the girls, they will testify that there is no lack of enjoyment for them when they have read the chapters of "Eight Cousins," "The Story for the Bird-defenders," "Christinchen's Answer," and "Among the Lilies." Mrs. Diaz's "Bad Luck of Bubby Cryaway," the story of a "Ragamuffin Party," "Mrs. Headache," and the beautifully illustrated poem of "The Little Girl who Wouldn't say Please," are all of them very serious in one sense and very funny in another; while children of a studious turn will find something exactly to their mind in the "Life of a Clothes-Moth" and the description of "The Druids and their Temples." The poem of "The Fays"—beautiful in itself—is illustrated most exquisitely by Jessie Curtis. The illustrations generally are admirable, and the various departments are full of information, anecdote and humor.

OVERLAND MONTHLY FOR JUNE.—This is the closing number of the fourteenth volume, and we must admit that the present issue contains many entertaining and valuable articles, by authors who made their reputation on this magazine. The first paper, entitled "Flood-storm in the Sierra," is the best descriptive article Mr. Muir has at any time contributed. Prof. Sill, of the State University, has a very fine paper on "Shakspeare's Prose," and Mr. Hutchins' article, "How Many do Two and Two make?" is matterful, in which he discusses the financial problem of the day—a return to specie payment—in a very able and lucid manner. In "Californian Songsters," we find brief and interesting experiences with some of our best singers of the feathery tribe. A well-thought out paper is "The Aim of poetry," by J. Royce. Of fiction, we have "Miss Jorgensen," by Mrs Victor; "The Crossley Boys," by Mary T. Mott; "The Fate of Hutchinson Wemble," by S. L. Simpson; "In a Californian Eden" (first part), by Joaquin Miller; "Old Fuller," by J. D. B. Stillman, and the sixth part of the editor's "Autobiography of a Philosopher." The poetical contributions, by C. W. Stoddard, Ina D. Coolbrith, Benj. P. Avery, and Lauren E. Crane are all good. The foregoing appetizing table of contents is followed by a full "Etc.," and a short review department, John H. Carmany & Co., publishers, 409 Washington Street, San Francisco. $4 per annum.

Honest Rulers Demanded.

Hereafter, unless we greatly mistake the tone and temper of the people, any political party, in order to elect its candidates to office, must place men in nomination in whom the people have confidence. There has been so much swindling by office-holders of late years that the masses of the people insist upon a general clearing out of the Augean stable, so long befouled with the vile doings of men who have proved traitors to, rather than the guardians of, the interests of those by whom they were placed in position. Corruption and bribery have so long been practiced at Washington that their influence has found its way to the remotest parts of the country, until now not only States and great cities like New York and San Francisco, have occasion to cry out against the dishonesty and downright thieving their public officers practice—the men elected by the people to do their bidding—but almost every community is in some way infected with dishonesty among office-holders. This leads to the inquiry, What is the cause of this rotten state of things in political management? The first great cause is in allowing men who make politics a trade to select the candidates for office. This is a mistake. The people should choose for themselves whom they desire to serve them. Office-seekers are far too numerous. It is often the case that men seek positions before the people for which they do not possess the necessary qualifications; and yet, because they can command influence with a certain class of so-called "politicians," they are nominated by their party, and in this way forced upon the people. In one sense every citizen is a politician. It is every man's duty to exercise his power by his vote, and to vote for honest men. Let the office seek the man, is a safe rule. Let no man receive a nomination who is not known to be honest and capable, is equally safe, and will do to tie to all the time. Upon these principles parties formerly went into a campaign, and they were successfully carried out. Then it was rare to hear of bribery, or malfeasance, or defalcation, or corruption in any form, on the part of public officers. They were the servants of the people and were satisfied to receive the pay allowed them by law for their services. And, on the other hand, it is equally the duty of every citizen, in view of his duty to his country or locality, when called upon to serve in an official capacity, to so far lay aside his personal preferences as to comply with their request. We think that, as a general rule, when a man has to be called upon before offering himself for public office, that man will do to trust. Another advantage in this system would be, that none but suitable men would be elected for any office. It is time the country returned to the good old ways of the fathers, and we hope to see something done in this direction in this county in the approaching campaign. At least we shall urge such a course upon the Democratic party. Whether the politicians agree with us or not, we believe the great mass of the people will. And with them the question rests. They have the power to control in these matters, and they ought to exercise it. Unless they do, the responsibility rests upon them if the best men are not chosen to fill our public offices.

THE JUDICIAL ELECTION.—The Mail of this week alludes to the approaching election for District Judge, and after half a column of apology that it does not support its party favorite for the position, says, in relation to the present incumbent, Hon. Lewis Ramage, that he "is a Democrat of the uncompromising school. He has made a very good Judge, but nothing brilliant. He is a man against whom there can be no valid war made only that he is not physically able to attend to the onerous duties." It speaks truthfully when it says he has made a good Judge; and as far as his physical inability to attend to the duties of the office is concerned, we have to refer to his past record. With the exception of a short time when he was confined to his room by extreme illness, he has presided continuously for the past six years; and it would, indeed, be wonderful if a man could attend to business more regularly. During the past two years he has not lost a day from any cause, and during his entire term he has probably disposed of more business than any other District Judge in the State. In San Francisco, where we would naturally look to see business speedily attended to in its numerous District Courts, the calendars are hopelessly behind, and it is not unfrequent that litigants have to wait a year or two to get a trial. When Judge Ramage went on the bench he was favored by his predecessor with a large amount of unfinished business, all of which he speedily disposed of, and notwithstanding that "extreme physical inability," he has kept the calendar clear. If that is the only point the Mail can urge against the Judge, we must decide that it is not well taken.

MOWERS!

We introduce to the Farmers of the Pacific Coast, for the season of 1875, the celebrated

"Meadow King" Mower.

This Machine we have selected from among some twenty-five machines inspected personally by our Manager last Fall throughout the Eastern States, and we find it to possess the great features most needed in California and Nevada, viz., Simplicity, Strength and Durability.

While it possesses all the good features of the "Buckeye," it has some others that make it far superior; and we feel confident in introducing it that we will meet the want of all Farmers for the BEST MACHINE for the least money. It is not a new and untried machine, but one which has stood high throughout the East for the last seven years. ☞ Send for special circular.

We shall have for 1875 the Genuine Haines' Header.

The Engines were shown to possess great power, and to be much easier to handle, and better in every way. For 1875 we offer them, with all the necessary improvements to fully adapt them to the Coast, as Machines superior to any other. ☞ Send for Special Circular.

RAILROAD MEETING.—The Stockholders of the Woodland, Clear Lake and Humboldt R.R. Co., in accordance with published notice, assembled at the Court House on Saturday last to consider By-Laws heretofore submitted, and which were with some slight alterations adopted, and for other purposes of business in furtherance of the work in hand; J. M. Rhodes, temporary President, presiding. After the adoption of the By-Laws a recess was taken till 8 P.M. At that hour the Stockholders again assembled and elected eleven persons to serve as a Board of Trustees, as follows: F. S. Freeman, J. M. Rhodes, D. Q. Adams, C. H. Davis, C. S. Frost, P. G. Everett, E. Bynum, L. D. Stephens, W. H. Duncan, J. D. Stephens, J. S. Tutt—the votes ranging from 574 to 617. Several other gentlemen received scattering votes. After this meeting adjourned, a meeting was called by the Directors for Friday (today) at 2 P.M., for the purpose of electing the following officers of the corporation, viz: President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary, all of whom, except Secretary, must be members of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Directors will also appoint a General Superintendent and Chief Engineer. It is understood that forward is the word with the Company, and they will act as rapidly as possible so as to get the road under way without unnecessary delay.

TOWN ELECTION.—On Monday next the election ordered by our city fathers occurs, by which is to be decided whether our citizens desire an efficient fire department for the protection of their property. We shall take it for granted they do, and those who have no town property certainly can have no interest in opposing the proposition, as the money required to procure the necessary apparatus will, if voted for by a majority of our qualified citizens, be raised by a tax levy upon the property of the town. That Woodland has been heretofore the most fortunate town on the coast, in exemption from serious conflagrations, is no guarantee for the future, and we hope to see this proposition carried by a large majority. In our sister town of Napa, and in other places, fires have been very frequent of late. It may be our turn next. Let us be prepared if the necessity should arise.

USEFUL INVENTION.—Mr. D. Crane, of Knights Landing, has obtained a patent for a newly invented grain and straw lifter, by the use of which, together with a derrick crane, a wagon load is lifted at once and unloaded in a body, all being accomplished in two minutes. The idea is, that a netting in the wagon-bed attached to bars or timbers at the top of the side, underlies the load. On arriving at the unloading place the derrick pully is attached to rings hanging loosely from the aforesaid netting bars, and the whole load is raised by a single horse with ease. Another advantage is that stacks can be carried to any required height. It was tried on Charley Read's ranch last summer with entire success. Mr. Crane is manufacturing them for sale at Knights Landing.

METHODIST CHURCH SERVICES.—Rev. J. B. Fish will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning and evening. Subject—"Christians the Temple of God." The public are invited.

Letter from Buckeye.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

BUCKEYE, May 25th, 1875.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT—DEAR SIR:—This may be my last from this old Democratic standpoint. Not that I expect to leave it, but it is destined to leave me. A portion has already gone, and the remaining part is on wheels. Yes, the rural village of Buckeye has been swallowed up by the more pretentious

TOWN OF WINTERS.

Our Postmaster has resigned, and unless some one takes it in hand we will at an early date lose our Postoffice, a thing much to be regretted; should some enterprising spirit set up a store here and continue the Postoffice and transact a mercantile business I have no doubt they could do well. The excitement about Winters is just such a one as occurred several years since about Cacheville; I think, however, the latter may prove a more permanent place of business; but it seems to me the same notion is prevalent with the land-holders as was around Cacheville in days of the excitement. Many believe that, had a different course been pursued, Cacheville would to-day have been the county seat of Yolo County. It would seem that Winters has all the surroundings necessary for building up a thriving town.

CROP PROSPECTS.

The cool weather of the past fortnight has been all that could be desired for the filling of cereals. If no north winds occur to shell out the grain there will be at least an average yield of wheat, and with the increased acreage of barley sown there will be a larger surplus than usual, although it is said that the barley kernel is more or less shrunken. The same might be said of the late wheat; but the early sown, especially the Sonora wheat, is as round and plump as we have ever raised in the best of seasons. Harvesting has commenced, and by the first of next week the whole valley will be one vast field of labor. Already $1.55 per cental has been offered for the coming crop of wheat—a fair price—but it seems that but few are willing to engage at that figure.

But little hay has been made, the wild hay being of a very poor quality. The entire hay crop had to be made from grain, and farmers have cut, as a general thing, very sparingly.

GENERAL ITEMS.

On Friday evening last a concert was given in the Baptist Church by Miss Alice Kinsley. This was, as it ought to have been, one of the largest and most pleasant affairs that has ever occurred in this place.

Buckeye is without a candidate for office, so far. Local Option reigns supreme—the saloons are all at Winters. Our fruit crop is excellent this season. This minute I understand that the Postoffice and a store will be continued at our town.

Several of our prominent citizens have said that they would like the Editor of the DEMOCRAT to represent Yolo County in the Assembly. So would ORLAND.

The Town of Winters.

VACAVILLE, May 24th, 1875.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—The auction sale of the lots of the town of Winters, greatly exceeded our expectations, and, we think, speaks well for the future prospects of the place. We held the lots at medium prices, and the demand was such that of those disposed of nearly all were sold privately, we in no case falling upon prices. Only two had to be put up at public auction, and they, the last two on Main street. Over $22,000 worth have been sold to date. All branches of business are making arrangements to locate—either building or arranging to do so. Mansfield & Theodore of this town, and Blum, Sons & Co., of Dixon, are putting up two fine stores to be occupied soon.

The iron on the railroad extension is being rapidly laid, and we have bought three coaches of the Kimball Car Manufacturing Company of San Francisco, as fine or finer than any in the State. We are also having an A No. 1 Baldwin Engine made by Burnham, Parry, Williams & Co., of Philadelphia, which will be here in July.

Everything seems to be running smoothly, every one is enthusiastic over the success of Winters and its appointments.

Yours very truly, A. M. & G. B. S.

"ILLUSTRATED FESTIVAL OF SONG."—This is the title of a really elegant book which is being canvassed for in this place by Miss A. Browning, and is obtainable only by subscription. The work is elegantly printed on tinted paper. It contains 375 pages and 73 engravings designed especially for this book. The frontispiece is an elegant steel engraving of Longfellow. Frederick Saunders is the compiler. None but the choicest gems have been selected, and those from the wide range of all the poets of the English language. Therefore it embraces the cream of all of them, and should be in every household. Miss Browning will call upon our citizens and be pleased to take the names of those who desire to obtain this very desirable work—suitable for keepsake, parlor or library.

"THE SPELLING BEE."—This is the title of a new and popular piece of music just published by Lee & Walker, 922 Chestnut street Philadelphia, by whom we have been favored with a copy. It is a funny subject singularly worked up, and music admirably adapted to spelling schools throughout the country. Price only 30 cents. Can be ordered by mail without further cost.

LOW DOWN.—Newton Booth said in his reception speech last week in San Francisco, that "no man can desire the success of the Republican or Democratic ticket, unless he be inspired by dishonest motives." That is a bold statement to come from one who was elected to the United States Senate by the Republicans only a few months ago.

TROTTING RACE.—On Saturday May 29th, a trotting race will come off over Ellis' track to harness and to rule, with the following entries: Geo. Ellis enters "Julius Cæsar," John Nickerson enters roan horse "John," Buchanan enters gray mare "Lola." Mile heats, best three in five. Entrance, $25.

TO FARMERS.—Keller & Co., Sacramento, have just received their invoice of Haines' Improved Headers with compound leverage. They are the finest header ever seen in this market, and it will pay any farmer wishing a header to go to Sacramento and examine them before purchasing.

ARCHITECT.—We call the attention of those contemplating building to the joint card of W. E. Callen, of this place, and Newsom Bros., of San Francisco. They offer their services especially as architects—no contracting.

AUCTIONEER.—A. G. Read is the only regular licensed auctioneer for Yolo county. Mr. Read's card appears in this paper. Those desiring his services may leave orders at this office, and they will be attended to.

ANOTHER AFFRAY IN THE CANYON.—On the 17th instant, seven miles above Dogtown, in Capay Valley, an affray occurred between two men named Rhodes and Spence, which came near resulting fatally to one of the parties. It seems that Rhodes had occupied some land in the locality indicated for a number of years, and now comes Spence with a load of lumber and declares his intention of building a cabin on the land claimed by Rhodes. Of course Spence was ordered off, when hot words followed and Spence struck Rhodes with a blacksnake whip, whereupon Rhodes seized an axe in the hands of a lad standing by, and with the butt of it dealt Spence a severe blow in the back just below the right shoulder-blade, breaking two ribs and puncturing the lung. This ended the quarrel, however, for by this time one party had received a serious injury, and the other had become alarmed at having inflicted it. A surgeon was summoned, who found the injured man as stated. Spence was doing well at last accounts, with a probability of recovery.

THE LION AND THE LAMB.—The call for a meeting of the "Independent County Committee" on the 5th of June, is signed by "James Johnson, Chairman," and "R. P. Davidson, Secretary." Both are understood to be office-seekers, the former the lion of the Democracy, the latter the meekest lamb of the Republican fold. They are both now among the "outs" and have left the parties of their first love and come out as Independents—no doubt with the hope of obtaining office. Thus the lion and the lamb lie down together.

NOT SO.—The Mail says the Democrats of Yolo will vote on Saturday next to elect delegates to a County Convention, etc. Whether this is said to mislead or not we have no means of knowing, It does not matter. The Democratic Primaries for electing Delegates to the County Convention will be held on Saturday, the 19th day of June—just three weeks further off.

INDEPENDENT COMMITTEE.—At the request of R. P. Davidson, Esq., and with the assurance from him that J. W. Snowball, Esq., would see the same paid for, we publish the call for a meeting of the Independent County Committee, which will be found under the head "New Advertisements."

SHALL WE CELEBRATE?—It is time arrangements were making for celebrating on the Fourth of July, or will this patriotic people allow it to pass by without a demonstration of their patriotism. Perhaps some of our citizens will call a meeting to make the necessary arrangements.

GAME OF BASE BALL.—A match game of base ball was played on Sunday last in Washington, this county, between the Quicksteps of that place and the Athletics of Sacramento, which resulted, after a closely contested game, in favor of the Washington club, the score standing 24 to 22.

NORTHER.—During the past two days we have been compelled to endure a disagreeable north wind, but for this time of year it was unusually cool. We learn that considerable damage was done to the early grain by whiping it out, as it was just ready to cut.

DISPUTED.—A Mail writer denies some of the points in our account given of the Knight's Landing race. We have only to say that we published the facts as furnished by a reporter who was an eyewitness of the races throughout.

QUEER CAUSE OF DEATH.—The Mail mentions the death of John C. Breckenridge, but denies the cause of death as reported by telegraph, and says: "Moreremotely perhaps, but really the effects of misapplied eminent ability." Clear, isn't it?

PERSONAL.—The Mail is making itself disgustingly rediculous by its continued and entirely uncalled for slurs at ex-Senator Minis. The editor himself may think it smart, but others consider it low and mean.

LAND NOTICE.—Parties interested in lands in Amended Township 16 north range 1 east, and township 12 north range 3 east, are referred to the notice from the Marysville Land Office in another column.

RECREATING.—Mrs. Carroll, music teacher, and family, have left town for a few weeks, Mrs. Carroll's health being poor. They expect to return early in August.

NEW WHEAT.—A load of New wheat was brought in to-day from Wash Hyatt's ranch, which was bought by Thomas & Hunt for $1.50 per cental.

WANTED.—Twenty acres of land South or West of town that can be irrigated. Also forty acres of the same kind.

FROST & BUSH.

I. O. R. M.—The Grand Council of the Improved Order of Red Men will be held in Marysville on the third Tuesday in July.

IMPORTANT.—Endorsed by the Medical profession. DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS cures Coughs, Colds and Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat and Chest. DR. TOWNLEY'S TOOTHACHE ANODYNE cures in one MINUTE. fe12-20w?

Health the Source of Happiness.

The relaxation of the nervous system, which creates an indisposition to mental or bodily action, is of very frequent occurrence. It is found that a torpid liver, debilitated stomach or deranged bowels are the great causes. For years DR. HENLEY'S CELEBRATED I. X. L. BITTERS has been successfully used throughout the United States, as an unfailing restorative and health-giving medicine—restoring and invigorating those organs to their original strength. It has never failed to restore to health and reinvigorate the whole system. Dyspepsia, indigestion and loss of appetite, general debility, rheumatism, fever and ague, disappear with its use. As a medicine for diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, it is without an equal. They are composed of an absolutely pure diffusive stimulant, medicated with the extracts and juices of the most effective tonic, and will prove a safeguard against the attacks of dispepsia and liver complaint. ap16-3m

The Wear and Tear of City Life.

The wear and tear of city life are a severe tax upon the strongest constitutions. The hurry and bustle and anxieties of business keep the nervous system in a state of unnatural tension during business hours, and in the end impair the elasticity and vigor of the vital organization. The penalty of all undue excitement is subsequent exhaustion. The best remedy for it, whatever the cause, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the tonic and alterative properties of which rapidly diffuse themselves through the entire system, revive and reinforce every dormant faculty, and restore a natural condition of body and mind. Some moral reformers insist upon the disuse of all stimulants. This, to say the least of it, is irrational. All competent physicians admit that a pure medicated stimulant is one of the most useful remedies known. As a tonic and invigorant for the aged and languid, Hostetter's Bitters has no equal. It is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. In all climates and in every species of disorder which breaks down the bodily strength, it is an absolute specific. It is also an invaluable remedy for sea-sickness. The nausea and retching caused by the pitching and rolling of a vessel at sea paralyzes the bodily and mental energies, and those who suffer from it would do well to resort to the Bitters as a means of sure and permanent relief. No steamer should sail without a supply of the article. Among the botanic ingredients of which it is composed are some of the most powerful blood depurents which the vegetable kingdom affords. Consequently, it not only tones and invigorates, but also purifies the system through the natural sluices which nature has provided. my7

The Yolo Democrat.

Friday, May 28th, 1875.

Under the Daisies.

It is strange what a deal of trouble we take,
What a sacrifice most of us willingly make,
How the lips may smile though the heart may ache,
And we bend to the ways of the world for the sake
Of the poor and the scanty praises,
And time runs on with such pitiless flow,
That our lives are wasted before we know
What work to finish before we go
To our long rest under the daisies.

And too often we fall in a useless fight,
For wrong is so much in the place of right,
And the end is so far beyond our sight,
'Tis as when one starts on a chase by night,
And the hounds elude pursuing.
Even so do we see, when our race is run,
That of all we have striven for little is won,
And of all the work our strength has done,
How little was worth the doing.

So most of us travel with very poor speed,
Failing in thought where we conquer in deed;
Least brave in the hour of greatest need,
And making a riddle that few may read,
Of our life's intricate mazes.
Such a labyrinth of right and wrong,
Is it strange that a heart once brave and strong
Should falter at last, and earnestly long
For a calm sleep under the daisies?"

But if one poor troubled heart can say,
"His kindness softened my life's rough way,"
And the tears fall over the lifeless clay,
We shall stand up in Heaven in brighter array
Than if all earth rang with our praises.
For the good we have done shall never fade,
Though the work be wrought and wages paid
And the wearied frame of the laborer laid
All peacefully under the daisies.

At Colusa, May 22d, the irrigation meeting was well attended by the leading persons and land owners. Strong ground was taken against the state controlling the scheme. A committee was appointed to report at an adjourned meeting to be held August 24th. Great interest was manifested by the land owners.

Says the Colusa Sun: We regret to learn that the small-pox has broken out on Stony Creek, near Newville. A. W. Roderic, a blacksmith living near the mouth of Grindstone, died with it last week. AYER'S Cherry Pectoral!

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public also for many years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

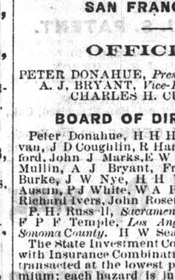
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR!

—FOR—

RESTORING GRAY HAIR

—TO ITS—

Natural Vitality and Color!



Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and other of them incident to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth, and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brushy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and stabilished; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hair resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is prized for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness it imparts.
